

I fully support the ARRL in this petition RM-10867. I feel that it is the next step into the 21st century. We need to join in with the rest of the countries that have abolished the code requirement. This will be the perfect opportunity for recruiting new hams into this great hobby of amateur radio.

Thank you for letting me comment on this petition. KG4DNB